Asking

While lying in bed this morning I discovered the secret of how to have what I want

I said, "Sweetheart could you please get me a big bowl of porridge and a nice cup of tea?"

He smiled and said, "Yes" and there it was my breakfast in bed

So I asked for a happy life
and there it was the sun flirting with me through the window and the morning sounds outside the door inviting me
