You'll Find The Unexpected

So busy being busy

It happened again
I fell into the great well of forgetting lost in lists, demands and worry Too busy being busy I got caught up in the doing and forgot what I was doing it for Climbing up the ladder only works if it is against the right wall Ticking off the list if it achieves something I still believe in Finishing the plan if I end up somewhere that matters
So very busy being busy
